

As a consumer of wireless, internet and cable television services, I am very concerned that a deal between Verizon wireless and major cable companies to cross market services will lead to less consumer choice and competition and result in higher prices. Consequently, I urge the FCC to reject this deal.

Thank you for your attention.