

Please stop this deal between Verizon and the large cable companies. They already take advantage of the consumer by offering higher prices with minimal increase in quality or content. The lack of competition will make this even more of a problem.