

Verizon and the cable companies are conspiring to extort greater profits from American consumers without improving the quality of service. Ask why these predatory corporations do not provide the same quality of internet service that emerging nations enjoy. please stop this deplorable attempt to impose a monopoly over the internet.