

The pending cable TV deal is a huge DISSERVICE to the public. We need diversity and competition in the market place. As it stands "zoning" and lack of competition is making cable companies unresponsive to consumer wants and needs, while steadily raising rates to ridiculous levels.