

How can a well-known TV company quotes you a guaranteed price for two years for their services (services meaning FIOs and HD TV reception) and then raises the "guaranteed" price after one year, stating that the "equipment" was not part of the guarantee. Hell. How can you get FIOS and HD reception without equipment? Are they pulling the wool over my eyes or what?