

Please perform your job with good conscience and integrity by stopping companies from forming monopolies and destroying competition in a free market system. Please do not succumb to payoffs that can sway your good judgement.