

Please protect us from the greedy machinations of Verizon and others that want to eliminate competition, via secret deals like this between Verizon, Comcast, Cox and the like.

With no competition, there will be a monopoly, higher prices will commence. This is very dangerous, please rule against the interests of those that place greed above the common good