

This is absolutely contrary to the interests of the average American and will have electoral consequences to those legislators who do not oppose this legislation.