

It's clear this is the making a gargantuan information monopoly that will continue to funnel money out of the pockets of consumers and into the pockets of cable and wireless executives. TWC has a long history of poor service and continued rate hikes. It's time to open this market to competitors that are community oriented instead executives who are driven by their own greed. It's time to put the people needs, cares, and concerns first.

Concerned regards.