

I applaud the FCC Administrative Law Judge's decision (ALJ Decision) ruling in favor of Tennis Channel in the Tennis Channel v. Comcast carriage complaint and the FCC for upholding the ALJ's decision. I also applaud the FCC decision in Bloomberg v. Comcast and urge the FCC to enforce NBC merger conditions while putting more regulatory conditions on the Verizon cable deals (Verizon SpectrumCo) relating to the spectrum license transfer requiring they move forward with 700 MHz divestitures. I urge the FCC to strengthen its Open Internet rules of Network Neutrality, reclassify broadband under Title II and hope the D.C. Circuit Court of Appeals agrees with the ALJ and the FCC in the Bloomberg and Tennis Channel carriage orders against Comcast NBC.
