

There is not enough competition in cable. My rates in Cleveland are too high. Cleveland started out with a locally owned cable operation and sold out to the big providers.