

I would urge FCC to increase competition and not get bought off by verizon and other big corporations. Please remember that this agency is supposed to look out for the little guy !!