

Reachout wireless and Assurance wireless phones services need to be investigated. I think they are a scam and is ripping off a lot of people and also the government by signing everyone up and then not providing proper service to us. And collecting money to add phone airtime and not providing it to people and you can't even contact them by phone. So many people are complaining on there website, please check things out for your self you will see. You letting them scam you also investigate these phone companies please.
