

It is ridiculous to assume that Verizon would not turn itself into a monopoly which would limit consumers' choices while increasing consumers' costs as Verizon increases fees. This is what the FCC is to protect the consumers' from... corporations whose sole goal is profit & to corner the market so they can charge exorbitant prices for their products. This must not be allowed to happen. Do not approve this Verizon deal.