

Verizon should be required to build the Fios network. We need cable competition, jobs and community investment, not an oligarchy between Verizon, Comcast, Time Warner and other cable companies so they can sell each other's products.