

I am writing you to oppose Verizon's plans to cross market their wireless service with other CATV companies. This plan would kill competition and drive up consumer pricing. It would also affect the jobs of over 45,000 union workers currently in contract negotiation with Verizon. It would stop Verizon's FiOS build out that could potentially add hundreds if not thousands of jobs to now unemployed American workers.