Re: Kaeng Raeng

Dear Ms. Reinsmith:

By this letter, we are advising you of the current status of your above-referenced petition for exemption from the Federal Communications Commission's (FCC's) closed captioning rules. On March 7, 2012, the Consumer and Governmental Affairs Bureau (the Bureau) advised you by letter that, absent further action on your part by April 6, 2012, the petition would be dismissed on June 5, 2012. We did not receive the requested information or a new petition from you prior to that date. Accordingly, as stated in the Bureau's letter, your petition was dismissed without prejudice on June 5, 2012. Given that your petition was dismissed without prejudice, you may file a new petition for exemption at any time. In addition, the Bureau advised you that if your petition was dismissed, you were required to comply with the FCC's closed captioning rules by June 6, 2012. Thus, as of such date, broadcast of the program that was the subject of your petition must be closed caption unless and until such time as you again request an exemption from the FCC's captioning requirements.

For your convenience, we have enclosed additional information that may help you better understand how we process individual requests for captioning exemptions. If you have additional questions pertaining to the filing of an exemption request, please contact the FCC's Disability Rights Office at captioningexemption@fcc.gov.

Sincerely,

Roger Holberg
Attorney, Disability Rights Office
Consumer and Governmental Affairs Bureau
