

Securus blocked my phone account with the number that Cons Call Home provided me. They said that it was fraud. They also told me that what you guys were doing was not legal and that I needed to contact (cons call home) and cancel my account and get my money back.