

Besides divesting excess 700 MHz spectrum to smaller carriers AT&T should be required to divest any excess AWS or WCS spectrum they may acquire in these deals to a smaller carrier also. At least half of the spectrum should be divested depending on the size of these spectrum deals to a smaller carrier in the same way the Commission required divestitures from Verizon Wireless in exchange for approving their deals with SpectrumCo LLC and Cox Communications.