

I will defer to the Commission on what it thinks is an appropriate build-out schedule for AT&T to use this new spectrum assuming it is allowed to acquire it. I again suggest a data roaming mandate and some divestitures of excess 700 MHz spectrum to smaller carriers.