

Method of Funding

The Montana Telecommunications Access Program is funded by a monthly fee of a $0.10 per line charged on all communication access lines including telephone, cell phone, pre-paid cell phone, and Voice over Internet Protocol (VoIP) lines. All money collected from this fee is placed into a State Special Revenue fund to cover the costs of the program. No federal funds are used and no State General Funds are used for this program.