To Whom It May Concern:

We have recently purchased time slots for a local Las Vegas television station, KTUD-TV. We have been informed that, as a result of a 2006 decision, we are responsible for the purchase of closed captioning for this programming.

At this time, we wish to request an exemption from closed-captioning requirements because of undue financial burden. Our program is educational and informative, and provides information to viewers about local activities, goods and services, family recreation ideas and regional attractions.

The program will produce much less revenue than $500,000 in revenue, and any additional production costs will result in termination of this project.

Please consider this a formal request for an exemption from the closed-captioning requirement. Thanks very much for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Brad Brennan
