

Because of the vastly increasing number of phone calls we receive at home where caller is not identified/unknown/name not found/ toll free and not identified we believe that ALL companies, charities, political callers etc. should be forced to reveal identities. Only INDIVIDUALS who require privacy should be able to go unidentified....not the above groups.