In the Matter of: Nomination for Universal Service Administrative Company Board of Directors,
CC Docket Nos. 97-21 and 96-45

Dear Chairman Genachowski:

As president of the Georgia School Superintendents Association and speaking on their behalf, I add my support and that of our 180 local superintendents to the nomination of Dan Domenech to the Universal Service Administrative Company (USAC) Board of Directors. We specifically support his nomination to the position currently held by Anne Bryant, pursuant to § 54.5401.

Dr. Domenech has distinguished himself as a leader during his tenure as executive director of the American Association of School Administrators, of which the Georgia School Superintendents Association is the state affiliate in the Peach State. We have interacted with him on numerous occasions, and we value his leadership and his common sense approach to problem-solving. We are confident that his intellect and his extensive experience as a school system and association leader would be invaluable to the USAC Board of Directors as it continues to oversee and improve the E-Rate program.

We are proud to join AASA and many other individuals and organizations in supporting Dr. Domenech's nomination. It is our sincere hope that you will agree with our belief that having someone of his stature and his ability to connect with local school districts all across America will be an asset to USAC and that you will see fit to have him fill the upcoming vacancy.

Sincerely,

Chris Erwin
President, 2012-13
