Re: Notice of Ex Parte Presentation
Tribune Company, Debtor-in-Possession
MB Docket No. 10-104

Dear Ms. Dortch:

Tribune Company, Debtor-in-Possession (“Tribune”), is submitting this letter to report on a meeting at the Commission regarding the above-referenced docket.

On October 19, 2012, John R. Feore, as attorney for Tribune, and Richard E. Wiley, as attorney for JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., met with Alex Hoehn-Saric, Policy Director for Commissioner Jessica Rosenworcel.

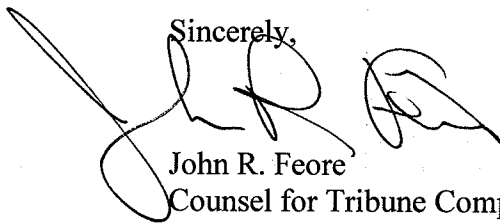

The counsel reviewed the history of the Tribune’s filing for bankruptcy in 2008, the fact that the Bankruptcy Court’s Order approving the Tribune’s plan of reorganization is effective, and that approval of the pending FCC applications is now the only regulatory hurdle remaining for Tribune to emerge from bankruptcy. The counsel urged the Commission to take all steps to act expeditiously on the applications in order to allow Tribune to exit bankruptcy as soon as possible.

The counsel also reviewed the pending cross-ownership waiver requests in five markets, the Tribune’s many years serving the public as a leading broadcaster, and the current business and competitive challenges facing the Tribune’s media properties and particularly the newspapers.

Pursuant to Section 1.1206(b)(2) of the Commission’s rules, 47 C.F.R. § 1206(b)(2), a copy of this notice is being filed electronically and a copy is being provided to the office of each Commission participant in the meeting.

Please contact the undersigned if you have any questions regarding these issues.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'John R. Feore', is written over the typed name and title.

John R. Feore
Counsel for Tribune Company,
Debtor-in-Possession
