

Considering companies like Pacific Telecommunications Group operate openly in our country and the scams seem to be proliferating, it appears to me that the FCC is nothing more than a pathetic joke. I'm going to ask my congressman to introduce a bill to sever your funding and create an agency that actually works.