

Please protect us from political text messaging. This costs us money and can be used to spread unsolicited misinformation and outright lies.