

Chairman Genachowski,

CG Docket Nos. 03-123 and 10-51

I am writing in response to the FCC's request for comments on the "Structure and practices of the video relay service (VRS) program and on proposed VRS compensation rates." I am very concerned that the changes being considered will destroy a program that is vitally important to people who are deaf or hard-of-hearing.

I am not deaf, but I know firsthand how VRS works. VRS allows people who are deaf or hard-of-hearing to use the "phone" to communicate just like people who can hear. With VRS they can do the things we take for granted - make a doctor's appointment or call a child's school. VRS puts people who are deaf on a more level playing field.

The changes being considered by the FCC would undo much of this progress. VRS largely relies on highly skilled American Sign Language (ASL) interpreters. The FCC wants to drastically cut the rate they pay VRS companies for providing this service. Obviously, this will have an immediate and negative effect on the ability of VRS companies to employ and train qualified interpreters.

The FCC has also suggested that VRS can be just as effectively provided through government-mandated software that is used on off-the-shelf equipment like common videophones, computers, or tablets. While such equipment can provide a convenient backup solution, it can't replace the videophones and other technologies specifically designed to take into account the special needs of the deaf and hard-of-hearing.

If the FCC takes away skilled ASL interpreters and innovative equipment, VRS as we know it today won't exist. This would be a huge step backward for the rights and opportunities of Americans who are deaf and hard-of-hearing.

MY HUSBAND IS DEAF. THIS SERVICE MUST CONTINUE TO SERVICE HIS NEEDS, HE TAKES CARE OF BUSINESS, TALKS TO HIS MOTHER IN OHIO, HIS CHILDREN, AND RELIES ON THIS SERVICE TO PROFESSIONALLY RELAY THE MESSAGE IN HIS LANGAUGE! ASL IT IS HIS RIGHT. IT IS HIS LIFE. ITS IS HIS RELIANCE ON THIS SERVICE THAT ALOWS HIM TO EFFECTIVELY COMMUNICATE WITH ANYONE THAT HENEEDS TO. IN HIS OWN VISUAL, LANGAUE!!!! DO NOT TAKE THIS AWAY FROM HIM OR ANY OTHER DEAF PERSON THAT DEPENDS ON THIS SERVICE.! deadra stewart
