

I encourage the FCC to implement the recommendations given by RID and NAD/Consumer Groups in their filings for a standardization of nationally certified interpreters, and the built in cost associated to accomplish this need. This will ensure the government continues to provide the appropriate functional equivalence for all Deaf and hard of hearing consumers of VRS (as mandated in the ADA) through certified, skilled interpretation of their phone calls.

Thank you.