

hi i am writing to concern my worries about the changes for the vrs my son relays on this form of communication for his doctors and staff communications also for if in the event he needs the emergency response if i am not home.