

I disagree with the "Single VRS Application" for Video Relay Service because I believe that it will prevent innovation in developing new technology. The technology is rapid updating these days.

Overall, I support NAD's comments on all of 4 items.