

I believe that users should be able to send text messages/picture texts in addition to 911 calls. There are circumstances where dialing 911 may put a victim at more risk. With a text messaging option I think that a greater number of emergencies will be able to be assisted or even prevented.