

The FCC must protect against media consolidation. The Public Interest is not served when just 5 businesses own the majority of airwaves and newspapers. A well-informed citizenry/electorate is vital for democracy. Massive media conglomerates will have too much control over the flow of information. Worthwhile news stories could be effectively 'killed'. Conversely, manufactured 'controversies' could be propagated. FCC must prevent media consolidation.