

I have found it more difficult to reach someone who has the capacity to retrieve and confiscate this smart-phone technology. This equipment has proprietary licensing that has been compromise,exploited, and abused in order too publish,report, and market my personal information abroad. I have NOT received any call backs for the insurmountable mountain of information that has been lost, or not accounted for due too the position holders of these companies.