

I am against permitting a change in rules that would permit media consolidation.

It is hard enough to get broad based news already.

If large media is permitted to own all media outlets in a given geographic area, it would be impossible to get divergent points of view reported which then leads to a collapse of free thinking and democracy.