

Have you lost your minds. We fought this oligarchy fight four years ago. We want our freedom of the press. We won't have it (what's left of it) if you let the greedy conglomerates get their hands on more than one outlet in each market. They came for me. When they come for you, and they will, you'll remember what you gave away. The blue meemies are winning, aren't you!