

As a citizen concerned about hearing a broad swath of opinion to inform my voting, I ask the FCC to hold public hearings before approving cross-media ownership of newspapers, TV and radio within the same city. This proposal is dangerous to our democracy and fosters monopoly and oligarchy. Let the public, which owns our airways, be heard on this subject. Our freedom as a democracy is at stake.