

Please do not grant any further media ownership to Rupert Murdoch. His ownership of stations has not furthered the public interest, but rather has often served as propaganda for big business and the republican party platform. The country needs more diversity and greater local ownership of all media sources.