

Please approve LightSquared's license modification application as I'm convinced doing so will increase competition and bring much-needed choice to rural America. I feel LightSquared's recent proposal goes a long way toward appeasing the GPS interests, and I admire the company's willingness to compromise.