

I am against media consolidation and the FCC's current media ownership proposal. This proposal is not in the interests of the people and does not protect or promote localism and diversity in the media.