

I am already appalled at how little real information is available to us, the taxpayers.....Our air waves are being used to spout hatred, untruths, and violence. Too much media consolidation has already hurt the public and our nation deeply. Even MORE consolidation by these very few owners will end public service to us all.