

I strongly support LightSquared's proposal and request FCC that it should correct its mistake of suspending the license of LightSquared and approve LightSquared's new proposal thereby enabling an innovative wireless broadband provider with unique ability to leverage both its satellite and terrestrial networks. This is good for the industry, country and people and is in public interest.