

Democracy is best served by diverse voices, no mega-conglomerate entities in control of all forms of communication. I urge the FCC to hold public hearings and get ordinary people's input on this matter. As it stands, it seems the FCC is cow towing to the rich and powerful.

Sincerely,

Mary and Linden Lentz