

Do not allow a small amount of companys to own all radio stations, news papers and TV stations. It will not be good for consumers and people to get information.