Re: Applications of GCI Communication Corp., ACS Wireless License Sub, Inc., ACS of Anchorage License Sub, Inc., and Unicom, Inc. for Consent to the Assignment of Licenses to Alaska Wireless Network, LLC
WT Docket No. 12-187

Dear Ms. Dortch:

In accordance with discussions with Commission staff, General Communication, Inc. ("GCI") hereby confirms in writing that it will not be submitting a privilege log in connection with production volumes FCC-GCI0001,¹ FCC-GCI0002,² and FCC-GCI0003³ because GCI has not claimed privilege on any of the documents contained within these productions.

GCI does not waive any privilege or protection by such production, and GCI does not intend to waive any applicable privilege or the protection of the work product doctrine with respect to any matter. GCI has taken efforts to ensure that none of the documents submitted to the Commission or any other agency in this matter are subject to the attorney-client privilege, the work product doctrine or any other applicable privilege. However, to the extent that, privileged or protected documents and information may have been produced notwithstanding GCI's efforts, such production shall be without prejudice to our claim that any such documents and information are protected by the attorney-client privilege, the work product doctrine, or any other applicable privilege. GCI requests that any privileged or protected documents inadvertently produced be returned to GCI as soon as such inadvertent production is discovered by any party, and reserves all rights to seek the return of any such documents.

¹ Produced to the Commission on November 21, 2012.

² Produced to the Commission on November 29, 2012.

³ Produced to the Commission on December 11, 2012.
