

We are totally against the consolidation of of media outlets.

We thought this battle had already been fought.

We need more individual or small ownership than conglomerate ownership.