

I oppose media consolidation, because it creates media monopolies. Independent and non-corporate voices tend to get left out. The consolidation of Clear Channel is a case in point. National programming replaces local, and corporate profit demands rule. No to consolidation.