

What will it take to put a stop to the existing and continuous pressure to consolidate media companies? Why does the current consolidation effort continue to surface in a sneaky way. The free press is the cornerstone of Democracy. Continuing to ignore this problem is unacceptable. What can you do about this?