

As an American taxpayer who enjoys watching programs provided by these means I am angered that the government, the government intended to serve me, would take measures to curb and sell this method of broadcasting. I will be watching the results with anticipation.