

I am a consumer of free public television. I ask that you respectfully protect this valuable source for the American viewing audience and keep television free.